Arts' Week What a great week it's been for all of us here at Landscor - fun filled and very creative! There has been such a buzz around the school and the children seem to have really enjoyed the week. They have had the opportunity to work with a variety of staff throughout the week and sample a range of art activities such as circus skills, shadow puppets, batik, block printing, doodling, felt making, collage, sculpture and singing & dancing to 'The Greatest Showman'. The outcomes have been fantastic and it's certainly put us all in the circus mood ready for Thursday next week!

Inspired by Arts Week!

Jasper Silk-Rundell was so inspired by arts week that he has been continuing his art at home with his mum. They made this picture based on Pablo Picasso's 'Le Clown' using a mixture of pastels and collage on Wednesday morning! Well done Jasper – what a fabulous picture!

Non-Uniform Day – Thursday 13th June! As many of our children and families are going to the circus next Thursday, we have decided to allow children to come to school in their own clothes on that day so that everyone can go straight to the circus without having to get changed first. There is no contribution needed for this non-uniform day.

Congratulations must go to Jonah Tucker, Amelia Holland & Toby Harvey this week for playing football for Crediton U7 in the Colyton Tournament last Saturday and the Dawlish Tournament on Sunday. The children had great success and managed to win their groups on both days. Well done to you all.

Congratulations to another football champion – George Hookway, who won the 'Behaviour and Attitude' Award at the Plymouth Argyle Community Trust Day during the half term. George has also been invited to attend trials twice a week for the Centre of Excellence at Plymouth which is a real honour – well done George!

Further congratulations must go to Eliza Henderson who has achieved her STANley level 5 for swimming and has also finished her Book Quest with the library by reading over 50 books! Very well done Eliza.

Final congratulations must go to Summer Baker who has been awarded her STANley level 7 swimming certificate. Great work Summer and keep it up!

I hope you all have a lovely weekend.
